LDS Employment Resource Services is a free resource for organizations dedicated to helping small businesses. We teach small business owners the principles of resourcefulness and strategic thinking and refer them to community resources that provide business and vocational skill training, mentoring, and loans. Our goal is to direct motivated business owners to the experts in the community who can help them grow and succeed.

any of our regional employment centers listed on the back of this brochure to talk about ways we can work together to support small business owners.

LDS Employment Resource Services can advertise your training and development programs at no charge to groups of people who are interested in starting or improving a business. Please contact
